

Universität Stuttgart

Institut für Arbeitswissenschaft und
Technologiemanagement IAT

By S-Bahn (suburban rail)

From Stuttgart main station or the airport, take S-Bahn (suburban rail) line S1, S2 or S3 in the direction of Vaihingen as far as the stop "Universität" (university). Follow the exit sign "Universität" and then signs to "Wohnheime Allmandring" (student residences). Continue along Allmandring for about 200 m after passing the student residences. The IAT building is located on the left-hand side of the street.

By car | Arriving on the A 8 autobahn from the direction of Karlsruhe or Munich, when you reach the Stuttgart interchange (Autobahnkreuz Stuttgart), turn onto the A 81/A 381 following the signs to Stuttgart-Zentrum (city center). Continue to the exit "Universität" (university), then turn left at the traffic lights into Universitätstraße, which leads into Nobelstraße about 120 m later. The entrance to the Fraunhofer institute center is on the right, just beyond the "Nobelstraße" bus stop. Parking is available in the institute center's parking garage. Alternatively, for direct access to the new building at Allmandring 35, continue further beyond the "Nobelstraße" bus stop and turn right into Allmandring, where it is the second building on the right (glass building). Parking is available on the lot in front of the building.
